DRY GOODS REVIEW

New York, February 4.—The cotton goods markets have grown stronger during the past week. Slight advances are being secured, and the demand shows more breadth. Users of goods shows more breadth. Users of goods are buying more contracts and more disposed to pay current asking prices. It was announced yesterday that 4-4 fruit of the loom would be placed at value, and that 7-5 goods would be sideaned 1-8 cent a yard. Wide print tooths and convertibles have advanced since last week, and the trailing has been more active. Of the 260,000 places soid at Fall River, about 25,000 were for spot delivery. The demand for general lines of export goods continues, and there have been further inquiries for goods for China shipment. Discounts have been shortened on wide shestings, and leading lines are well sold. Lines of duck and awning stripes are growing firmer.

Jobbers report a fair demand for ing stripes are growing firmer.

Jobbers report a fair demand for merchandise from retailers who need the goods at once. There has been more inquiry for wash fabrics and of the finer grades of goods, while the steady call for spot delivery of wide, heavy cottons and colored yarn cottons continues unchanged. The improved market tone is attributed largely to the need of more merchandise on the part of retailers and to the firmer values current in raw cotton.
